Tanya:

I don't know anything about SeaWeb but I have met Bob Waldrop on a number of occasions - he is the head of the BB Regional Seafood Development Association representing the interests of BB's commercial fisherman. He has been a very articulate spokesman for the commercial fisherman and has organized commercial fisherman from across the country to protect BB. I think that Denise has likely met Waldrop as well during one or more meetings here in DC.

The interview is fair, Waldrop represented his point of view. I don't know anything about SeaWeb as a group.

Hi Palmer,

Denise has been asked to do an interview for SeaWeb's Ocean Voices. The focus of the interview will be mostly OCPD-related topics, but I was on their web site and randomly came across this interview on Pebble Mine:

Thought you might be interested. If you have any insights to this group (SeaWeb) I'd be interested in hearing. I need to make a recommended to Denise whether she should do an interview.

Thanks,
Tanya
